• TAKING THE NEXT STEPS IN OUR FAITH JOURNEY •

Welcome to the sixth edition of Next Steps Quarterly. As a church we long for people to read and engage scripture on their own. We are hoping this and the Resource Wall, located by the patio, will allow you to explore different ways to grow in your engagement with the Bible and grow as a follower of Jesus.

In each publication you will have recommendations for books, devotions, podcasts, apps, Bible studies or websites we believe reflect biblically accurate information. Simply scan the QR code on each section to learn more. This edition we will focus on tools to enhance your understanding of the book of James, which will be the next preaching series. There will also be recommendations to learn about and grow in discipleship.

Bible Project Overview: James

A good first step before engaging a book of the Bible is to watch an overview of the entire book. This helps you engage the material at a deeper level. This link will take you to a short video walking you through the key people, places and themes you will encounter in the book of James.

Right Now Media: The Book of James by Francis Chan

Did you know the church has access to hundreds of Bible studies online? They contain video teaching along with printable materials for free. This study will enhance the sermon series on the Book of James after we finish up the ten commandments. Grab a friend or two and go through this 12-session study.

The Call to Discipleship

The Call to Discipleship by Timothy Keller

Have you heard the word discipleship floating around? What does it actually mean to be a disciple of Jesus? This sermon by Timothy Keller uses scripture to outline what it means to be an active follower of Jesus.

Practicing the Way by John Mark Comer

This book will help you take steps to understand a biblically sound way to become a disciple of Jesus. The true thing about discipleship is it will take a conscious effort on your part to become one. This book will help you define that journey.

Family Discipleship Podcast

Discipleship is for all ages and begins as we become followers of Jesus. This podcast can help families be intentional in building this into their children. The bonus is that parents will grow in their intentional walk with Jesus too!
